Conference

LOCAL GOVERNANCE IN THE NEW URBAN AGENDA

Aim

The 2017 Annual Conference of the IGU Commission on 'Geography of Governance' (IGU-GoG), organized in collaboration with the Department of Cultural Heritage - University of Salento, will be held in Lecce, Italy, 19 - 21 October 2017.

The Conference aims to explore and to discuss the changes, challenges and opportunities confronting Local Governance in the context of the new urban paradigm associated with the HABITAT III New Urban Agenda, a 20-year strategy for sustainable urbanization, adopted in October 2016 in Quito, Ecuador.

Participation & Selection criteria

- Participants in the conference are expected to present a paper. For participation without a paper, please contact us before the registration period.
- The conference is organized in panels according to topics and issues.
- All submissions will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee for content and appropriateness to this conference.
- The working language of the conference will be English. Translation services will not be provided.

Program

The Conference aims to address, but is not limited to, the following issues:

- (a) The role of local government in the definition and implementation of more inclusive, transparent, accountable, effective and transformational local policies for sustainable and resilient urban development.
- (b) Sustainable, people-centred, long-term, and integrated approaches to urban development.
- (c) New ways to plan, finance, govern, and manage cities and other non-urban / rural settlements.
- (d) Multi-stakeholder, multi-level institutional cooperation among all tiers of government. National urban policies and the changing role of sub-national government in urban development.
- (e) The roles of cities/city-regions within transnational / national planning and governance schemes.
- (f) Policy transfer across local and city-regional entities.
- (g) Global urban policy principles and local governance practices: correspondence and disjuncture.
- (h) Alternative visions and alternative models for local governance.
- (i) Climate change and the challenges for local governance.
- (j) The governance of smart, green and integrated urban transport.
- (l) Indicators for the governance of local sustainable development.

Expected Outcomes

- It is expected that a selection of conference papers will be published.
- The selected manuscripts will be double-blind peer-reviewed.
- More information about publication will be given during the conference.

Abstracts

- All colleagues interested in participating in the conference are invited to submit, by e-mail, an abstract with approx. 250 words, by no later than 30 June 2017, to the Conference Convenors.
- If necessary, contact us to discuss any ideas that you might have for a paper on the proposed themes and issues or on other related topics.
- Successful applicants will be informed by 31 July 2017.
