NOMINATION FORM

The IGU Award for Distinguished Geographical Practice

The IGU Award for Distinguished Geographical Practice was established to recognize geographers whose work in research, geographical practice, or application is notable for its outstanding engagement and collaboration with diverse non-academic and academic communities.

Nominations for the IGU Distinguished Geographical Practice Award(s) for 2022—to be announced and presented at the 2022 Centenary International Geographical Congress in Paris, France—are to be made on this form. The completed form should be e-mailed to the Chair of the IGU Honors and Awards Committee, Emeritus Professor Ronald F. Abler of The Pennsylvania State University (USA) at rfa1@psu.edu to arrive no later than 31 December 2021. A brief resume for the nominee (no more than five pages) should be submitted at the sametime.

The IGU Award for Distinguished Geographical Practice is a new award, to be conferred for the first time in 2022.

The successful candidate(s) for a 2022 award will be selected by the IGU Honors and Awards Committee from nominations received by the due date of 31 December 2021.
